

Media Release

The Victoria Storytellers Guild will host the 17th annual Storytellers of Canada/Conteurs du Canada Conference from July 8-12/2009 at the University of Victoria.

Here's a bonus for Victoria and surrounding areas residents!

Two lively public performances for adults will entertain audiences with tales of wisdom, wit, and wonder.

"Ebb and Flow" features 'Island Tales by Island Tellers' and local musicians, 'The Commas'.
Gibson Auditorium, Camosun College, Lansdowne Campus
Thursday, July 9th at 7:30 pm.

"Tales at Eventide" features National Storytellers from Newfoundland to British Columbia Master of Ceremony: Gregor Craigie host of "On the Island" on CBC Radio 1
St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church (Broughton & Douglas)
Saturday, July 11, at 7:30 pm.

Want to hear a sample story? Visit the Victoria Storytellers' Guild website at www.victoriastorytellers.org and listen to a true audio story about a Vancouver Island miner's widow in Nanaimo in the late 1800's!!

Tickets: $15 per performance can be purchased at Munro Books, Ivy's Bookshop, & Cadboro Bay Books. Tickets also available at the door.

For further information

visit www.victoriastorytellers.org or contact Ron Armstrong - 250-385-9552 or by email at captinca@yahoo.com